2022 PREVIEW GUIDE

Team Name: Ole Miss Rebels

- Notables: Win over Mississippi State, Win over Georgia Tech, 2 Wins of Coastal Carolina

Number of Returning Players: 6 returning members from 2019-2020 Season

Returning Past All Region/NCBA All American Award Winners (Please list player names, specific accolades & years won): N/A

Players to Watch: Wes Duffield: Serving as the powerhouse and leader of the team going into his 5th season, Wes is a player that should be watched not just here at Ole Miss, but at the national stage. Leading the rotation with a powerful fastball and always evolving arsenal of off-speed pitches, Wes looks to have his best season yet for the Ole Miss Rebels. On the mound, he racked up 24 K's in 13 innings and led the team to its sole win this Fall. At the plate, he batted a clean .400 with 3 extra bases including a homer, and led the team in nearly all offensive categories.

Dalton Rogers: The energy and effort Dalton brings to the team goes well beyond his already impressive stats. Always willing to go the extra mile to make a play, Dalton returns for one more season to cap off his Club Baseball career. After settling for walks galore in the first two series of the Fall, Dalton showed his power with a grand slam in the Wood Wars tournament.

New additions: Jake Carpenter: Leading the loaded freshman class filled with talent, Jake Carpenter looks and plays the part of a powerful hitting and plus defender in the corners. Jake batted north of .300 and showed great plate discipline and approach that many freshman struggle in their first games. He looks to build on his success this Fall and join the upperclassman in the heart of the order. Along with his hitting talent, he surprised as a lights out option out of the bullpen, pitching great against the Auburn offense that shelled most other pitchers.

Ian Sparks: With a starting rotation that took a hit after the 2020 season, Ian was a great find for the Ole Miss Rebels. Fresh out of Horn Lake, MS, Ian showed up and instantly starting showing his potential as a starting pitcher during the covid practice season. Picking up over 11 innings of work, and a save during the Rebels win over Mississippi State in 3 scoreless innings of work, Ian looks to continue to effectively mow down the hitters of the NCBA.

Aiden MacLean: When he isn't competing for the spectacular Ole Miss Club Hockey team, Aiden serves as spark plug at the plate and force behind it as a catcher. He got off on the right foot against the Bulldogs with 2 hits, 2 runs, a RBI, and a walk in his first games with the team. He then picked up 4 more hits over the course of the Wood Wars tourney. With production like that right from the start, the sky is the limit for Mr. MacLean as he progresses for the Rebels.

Biggest Rival: Mississippi State

Best Player Nickname: Sebastain Hineman - Godzilla

2021-2022 Season Outlook: Despite a, for lack of a better term, terrible Fall season, the optimism is high and an even higher bar is set for the Ole Miss squad. The team started battling hard with a split doubleheader with the always competitive, brothers in Mississippi and translated their player talent to results. However, shorthanded and still finding their footing against college competition, struggled to put together similar fight against other competition. A returning core of upperclassman and graduate students looks to bridge the experience gap and lead their team to wins. The biggest question mark going into 2022 is if the team can successfully turn their talent into results and wins on the field. There is no shortage of talent here in Oxford in all phases of the game. With an abundance of new faces, the team will use all of their pieces to find success against a talented slate of games in the Spring.

Manager Quote: "This is the most impressive group of freshmen we have ever seen for the Club team here at Ole Miss. I feel like our team has been so close to conference titles and consistent success, always within reaching distance but needing to clear that hurdle. And I legitimately think the new wave of talent and underclassman can be that difference maker. It will be no easy task going against some of the teams in our conference and the other games we've scheduled, but I think the squad is ready to not just compete in those games, but come out victorious every single weekend"

2021-2022 Season Outlook: Expect SMU to come out and compete for a conference championship after going 1-5 two years ago. SMU's freshman and sophomore class has incredible talent and potential and we could see that SMU might have one of the most skilled rosters in the league. They have added pitching depth also which was a major point for them in the offseason. SMU has hopes of reaching the World Series this year and each player has bought in fully for this battle. SMU will be away at Texas Tech and Oklahoma state and home against Baylor and UNT.

Manager Quote: I believe that this team has the most talent out of any team in our conference. If we do things right and practice hard, I do not think any team in this league could beat us in a series. I have been talking with the guys in the offseason and everyone is determined to work hard and be a team player, so that we can win this conference and make a run in the playoffs. I've been telling my team in the fall, if we play our game and don't make stupid mistakes, there is no team that we cannot handle.
