2022 NCBA DI WORLD SERIES TO BE PLAYED IN GREENWOOD, SC

PITTSBURGH, PA — The National Club Baseball Association is pleased to announce that the 2022 NCBA DI World Series will be held in Greenwood, SC at Stephen B. Dolny Stadium on the campus of Lander University. The World Series will take place from May 27th through June 2nd.

Stephen B. Dolny Stadium is home to the Lander University Bearcats baseball team, a Division II member of the NCAA. The stadium opened in 2012 & sits 750 people. Dolny Stadium is a beautiful facility that has also hosted past NCAA Division II Peach Belt Conference Tournaments & even past NCAA Division II Regional events.

"The NCBA is extremely excited to bring the 2022 NCBA World Series to Stephen B. Dolny Stadium in Greenwood, SC. We're given an opportunity to use a fantastic facility surrounded by all the resources we could ever need to put on a top notch event our teams deserve." - Eric Curitore | Vice President of NCBA Baseball Operations

"Lander University is excited about the opportunity to host the National Club Baseball Association's World Series this coming May. The games will be played at beautiful Dolny Stadium at the Jeff May Complex. This is a great event not only for Lander University but for the city of Greenwood as well. We look forward to hosting teams from all across the country for this huge event" - Brian Reese | Lander University Athletic Director

Series at Lander University's Dolny Stadium. By joining with great community partners such as Lander University, we are afforded the opportunity to host a major tournament such as this World Series, & are grateful for Greenwood's support of this event. We are expecting a significant economic impact with this event totaling anywhere from $600,000 - $1,000,000 for our area. Partnerships such as these are part of what makes Greenwood an appealing sports destination." - Kelly McWhorter | Executive Director; Discover Greenwood

Greenwood, SC has several airport options close by; Greenville-Spartanburg International (1 hour), Charlotte Douglas International Airport (2 hours) and Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport (3 hours), which will create additional convenience for all attendees having to fly in from around the United States.
